The term Cold War is out of political tension and hostility, which does not lack open warfare. While the US focused on the spread of democracy and open markets around the world, the USSR wanted to spread communism to have rabbits around them. As a result, the US has taken hold as promoted by the scholar George Kennan. Kennan believed that the U.S. should focus on communism. ⌚ Timeline🔴 Live Stream Replay: The Cold WarUp to 1965📄Slides: The Cold War1947: America gives aid to Britain to help fight communist forces in Greece, leading to the Truman Doctrine, declaring America will give aid to any country fighting against the oppressive Communist forces.1947 : The Marshall Plan comes into effect, in which America gives money to Europe for reconstruction. This aimed to create more American alliances and stop the spread of communism in Europe.1949: NATO (North Atlantic Treaty Organization) is creating the United States and other non-communist countries. Alisa's national coordination of the defense of the Communists that is the earth's issue.1949: The SSSR detonates the first atomic bomb, the war of jacinne over the U.S. and the 1950s Red Scare began. UsSR Prime Minister Gorbachov acknowledges that the continuation of the rapid military growth fueled by the Cold War is economically inductive, and US President Reagan is advocating the 1989-90 berlin wall. Unrest occurs in East Germany, while other parts of Europe resist Soviet power. The Berlin Wall finally falls in 1990.1991: The USSR is dissolved into separate countries of Russia, Ukraine and Belarus.🌟 Remember, this is just a quick snapshot of the main things you should know from the Cold War. History is all about drawing your own conclusions from complex situations, causes and effects. To do this, you need to read your APUSH textbook! The best advice I can give you is to read, re-read, review and draw conclusions for yourself from the material you have read. While this is an excellent quick review, it is important and much more interesting to dive deeper, and I really encourage you to do it! Good luck this year, good luck reading and remember...
